

has an immediate opening for a warehouse technician
at its Oakville, Ontario office / warehouse responsibilities:

- Keep the Masteel Oakville warehouse with its offices and other rooms tidy and clean.
- Move heavy metalworking machinery, accessories and parts around the warehouse with a forklift truck and/or overhead crane(s) to treat the machinery storage area as a presentable showroom for customer and supplier on-line tours and personal visits.
- Receive truck deliveries and load/offload heavy metalworking machinery, accessories and parts onto/from a relevant indoor parked truck with a forklift truck and/or overhead crane(s).
- Provide simple on-line and on-site technical service for Masteel CNC shears and press brakes for/at local Masteel customers.
- Provide machine / accessory loading/unloading and booth set-up assistance at North American trade shows.

future opportunities for the right candidate:

- warehouse manager
- service engineering: customer machine installation + service
- application engineering: customer machine operator training + demonstrations requirements:

- A valid Ontario driver's license.
- A valid Canadian passport.
- Computer literacy with Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook + Teams experience.
- The physical ability and stamina to lift heavy items by hand and work mostly standing and/or walking.
- An organized and professional attitude to handle the above responsibilities and communicate with Masteel's customers via phone, email and face-to-face assistance.

remuneration:

- Industry matching salary + benefits.
- Company provided pick-up truck with company fuel card.
- Company iPhone and Windows based laptop computer.